

An exclusive ACEC Life/Health Trust alliance with multiple benefits for engineering firms

When engineering firms are part of the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC), they get members-only access to employee health plans through the ACEC Life/Health Trust, insured and serviced by UnitedHealthcare. Along with group-negotiated rates, advantages include:

- 1 Access to the group purchasing power of more than 1,300 firms and 95,000 members that renew 91%<sup>1</sup> of the time
- 2 Value-added services at no additional cost:
  - A robust wellness program
  - 24/7 access to virtual nonemergency care
  - A consumer advocacy program designed to proactively engage employees and improve health
- 3 Dedicated customer service team held to key performance metrics
- 4 More than 130 plans and programs to choose from, including plans with health savings accounts (HSAs)
- 5 Access to the nation's largest proprietary network through UnitedHealthcare, administrator of the ACEC Life/Health Trust

The UnitedHealthcare plan with Health Savings Account (HSA) is a qualifying high deductible health plan (HDHP) that is designed to comply with IRS requirements so eligible enrollees may open a Health Savings Account (HSA) with a bank of their choice or through Optum Bank, Member of FDIC. The HSA refers only and specifically to the Health Savings Account that is provided in conjunction with a particular bank, such as Optum Bank, and not to the associated HDHP.

The American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC), the ACEC Life/Health Insurance Trust and UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company are three separate legal operating entities and, as such, the organizations are governed and function independently. UnitedHealthcare's services are provided with the authorization of the ACEC Life/Health Trust. Questions related to health benefits offered through the Life/Health Trust should be directed to 1-800-573-0415. Must be UnitedHealthcare insurance license products; and HMO products do not apply. ACEC membership qualification is determined by the association. Insurance coverage provided by or through UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company, UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company of Illinois or their affiliates.
